

TAKEOVER CREATIVES FC

Official Website Master Plan, UI/UX Direction & Content Specification

Club: Takeover Creatives FC

Founded: 2024

Location: Kampala, Uganda

Core Communities: Namuwongo, Kanyogoga, Kasanvu, Soweto and Tebaleka

Parent Organisation: Takeover Creatives Uganda

Brand Direction: Redefining Creativity

Primary Brand Colours: Emerald Green, Pyramid Gold and Cream

1. EXECUTIVE VISION

The Takeover Creatives FC website should be designed as the digital home of the club.

It should not feel like a template football website. It should feel like a combination of:

- A professional football club website
- A youth-development platform
- A community organisation
- A sports media platform
- A digital club archive
- A recruitment and partnership platform
- A future commercial platform

The objective is to make someone visiting the website for the first time immediately understand that Takeover FC is building something much bigger than a football team.

The website should communicate three things immediately:

1. This is a serious football club.
2. This club exists for more than football — it develops people.
3. This is a club with a future, not merely a local team.

The story should be:

From community football → to structured club → to youth development institution → to a recognised Ugandan football brand.

2. THE PRIMARY GOAL OF THE WEBSITE

The website has five major objectives.

Goal 1 — Establish the Club's Identity

The website should answer:

- Who is Takeover FC?
- Why does Takeover FC exist?
- Where did it come from?
- What does it believe in?
- What makes it different?
- Where is it going?

A visitor should understand the club within 30 seconds.

Goal 2 — Build Credibility

The website should make Takeover FC look organised and credible to:

- Football associations
- Schools
- Sponsors
- NGOs
- International organisations
- Football academies
- Players
- Coaches
- Parents
- Media
- Community leaders
- Potential partners

The website becomes part of the club's official identity.

When Takeover FC sends a sponsorship proposal, partnership request or player-development proposal, the website should serve as the club's digital proof of existence and seriousness.

Goal 3 — Tell the Human Story

Takeover FC should not only show football.

It should show:

the people behind the football.

The website should tell stories about:

- Young players
- Coaches
- Community
- Education
- Mentorship
- Challenges
- Successes
- Dreams
- Development
- Football opportunities

The strongest message should be:

We don't simply develop footballers. We develop young people through football.

Goal 4 — Create Opportunities

The website should eventually become a gateway for:

- Sponsorship
- Partnerships
- Donations
- Player recruitment
- Volunteer opportunities
- Coaching opportunities
- Academy applications
- Equipment donations
- Community programmes
- Media enquiries

The website should therefore be designed with conversion in mind.

Every important visitor should have a logical next step.

Goal 5 — Build the Future Club

The website must be scalable.

Do not build it only for today's Takeover FC.

Build it for the Takeover FC of five and ten years from now.

The architecture should eventually support:

- Senior team
- Youth teams
- Girls' football
- Academy
- Coaches
- Player profiles
- Fixtures
- Results
- League tables
- Match statistics
- Newsroom
- Merchandise
- Sponsorship
- Donations
- Events
- Community programmes
- Digital membership
- Scouting
- Player registration

3. THE WEBSITE'S CORE MESSAGE

The central positioning should revolve around:

TAKEOVER FC

Football With Purpose.

And the broader brand philosophy:

Redefining Creativity Through Football.

The website should demonstrate that creativity is not limited to graphic design, art or technology.

Football itself is creative.

Community development is creative.

Youth empowerment is creative.

Building opportunities where none existed is creative.

That is where the Takeover Creatives identity becomes powerful.

4. BRAND PERSONALITY

The website should feel:

Bold

Young

Ambitious

Professional

Authentic

Energetic

Community-driven

Creative

Disciplined

Forward-looking

It should NOT feel:

- childish
- amateur
- overly corporate
- generic
- cluttered
- like a school sports website
- like a free football template
- excessively flashy without substance

5. VISUAL DIRECTION

5.1 Overall Design Philosophy

The design should combine:

Premium football aesthetics + African identity + modern digital design + documentary storytelling.

Think:

- Large cinematic photography
- Strong typography
- Generous spacing
- Powerful headlines
- Dark sections
- Emerald accents
- Pyramid-gold details
- Editorial layouts
- Player photography
- Match photography
- Short videos
- Subtle animations
- Strong transitions
- High-quality statistics

The website should feel closer to a professional football brand than a traditional community-team website.

6. COLOUR SYSTEM

Display typography

A strong modern condensed or athletic display typeface can be introduced for:

- Hero headlines
- Matchday
- Player names
- Section headings
- Large statistics

The combination should create a football-editorial feeling.

8. PHOTOGRAPHY DIRECTION

Photography will be one of the most important parts of the website.

Avoid relying heavily on generic stock football images.

The club should document its real people and real environment.

Photographs should include:

- Players training
- Match action
- Players arriving at training
- Team talks
- Coaches
- Community
- Young players
- Children playing football
- Education activities
- Equipment distribution
- Team celebrations
- Dressing-room moments
- Community environments
- Fans

- Coaches mentoring players

The environment matters.

Images from Namuwongo, Kanyogoga and surrounding communities should help tell the story of where Takeover FC comes from.

The website should make visitors feel:

"I can see the people this club is trying to change."

48. USER EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

The website must be:

The mobile experience must not be a reduced version of the desktop site.

It must be intentionally designed.

FAST

Target:

- Excellent Core Web Vitals
- Optimised images
- Lazy loading
- WebP/AVIF
- CDN

- Minified assets
- Optimised fonts
- Efficient JavaScript

A beautiful website that takes 10 seconds to load is a bad website.

ACCESSIBLE

Implement:

- Proper contrast
- Keyboard navigation
- Alt text
- Semantic HTML
- Accessible forms
- Screen-reader-friendly navigation
- Clear focus states

49. ANIMATION DIRECTION

Animation should communicate quality rather than distract.

Recommended:

- Smooth page transitions
- Scroll-triggered reveals
- Subtle image zoom
- Number counters
- Hover interactions
- Match countdown
- Text reveal
- Parallax photography
- Player card transitions
- Horizontal timeline movement

Avoid:

- excessive bouncing
- unnecessary spinning
- giant loading animations
- animations that slow the site

- animations that interfere with reading

The website should eventually include:

LIVE MATCH CENTRE

For major matches.

FIXTURE CALENDAR

Users can add matches to their calendar.

PLAYER STATISTICS

Goals, appearances, assists and other relevant metrics.

LEAGUE TABLE

Where applicable.

MATCH COUNTDOWN

NEWSLETTER

Allow supporters to subscribe.

NOTIFICATIONS

51. CMS / ADMINISTRATION

The development team should build the website around a proper CMS.

Administrators should be able to update:

- Players

- Fixtures
- Results
- Scores
- News
- Images
- Videos
- Coaches
- Teams
- Partners
- Sponsors
- Events
- Community programmes

The club should not need a developer every time someone needs to update a match result.

52. DATABASE STRUCTURE

The backend should be structured around reusable entities.

PLAYER

- Name
- Photo
- Position
- Team
- Number
- Bio
- Statistics
- Status

TEAM

- Name
- Age group
- Coaches
- Players

This will make the website scalable.

53. SEO STRATEGY

The website should be built to rank for searches such as:

- Takeover FC
- Takeover Creatives FC
- Takeover Creatives Football Club

- football clubs in Kampala
- youth football Kampala
- football academy Kampala
- youth football Uganda
- football development Uganda
- community football Uganda

Every major page should have:

- Canonical URL
- Proper heading structure
- Optimised images

Implement structured data for:

- Organisation
- SportsTeam
- Person
- Event
- Article
- Breadcrumb

54. CONTENT STRATEGY

The website should not be treated as a one-time project.

It should become the club's permanent digital newsroom.

Recommended publishing rhythm:

WEEKLY

Match content

Training content

Player content

MONTHLY

Community story
Player feature
Club development update

QUARTERLY

Impact report
Club progress
Partnership update

ANNUALLY

Season review
Statistics
Awards
Club report
Future plans

55. EDITORIAL STYLE

Writing should be:

- confident
- concise
- human
- honest
- ambitious
- professional

Avoid exaggerated claims.

For example, don't write:

"We are the biggest football development organisation in Africa."

Instead:

"We are building a football institution designed to create opportunities for young people."

The club should let its work prove its ambition.

56. BRAND STORY

The central narrative should be:

IT STARTED WITH FOOTBALL.

But football became the platform.

The platform became a community.

The community became a club.

And the club is becoming an institution.

That should become one of the strongest storytelling concepts on the entire website.

57. THE TAKEOVER FC DIGITAL EXPERIENCE

The website should feel like entering the world of the club.

A possible experience:

Landing

Football

Players

Stories

Community

Impact

Future

Support

The visitor should move naturally from:

What is Takeover FC?

to:

What does Takeover FC do?

to:

Who does it help?

to:

Where is it going?

to:

How can I become part of it?

58. THE "TAKEOVER" CONCEPT

The word TAKEOVER should be used creatively throughout the digital experience.

Examples:

TAKEOVER THE PITCH

Football

TAKEOVER THE FUTURE

Youth development

TAKEOVER OPPORTUNITY

Community

TAKEOVER YOUR POTENTIAL

Player development

TAKEOVER TOGETHER

Partnership

This gives the brand a distinctive language system.

It should be used strategically rather than forced into every sentence.

59. SIGNATURE DESIGN COMPONENT

The website should have one or two design elements unique to Takeover FC.

For example:

THE TAKEOVER LINE

A thin emerald/gold line that travels through sections of the website.

It could represent:

the journey from player → team → community → club → future.

Another option:

THE TAKEOVER GRID

A distinctive modular grid used for:

- Player cards
- News
- Statistics
- Community stories
- Match information

This creates a visual identity that users immediately associate with Takeover FC.

60. HOMEPAGE WIREFRAME

Recommended order:

1. Navigation
2. Cinematic Hero
3. Next Match
4. Club Statistics
5. More Than a Football Team
6. Our Story Timeline
7. Community
8. Player Story
9. Impact
10. Latest News
11. Upcoming Fixtures
12. Partners
13. Support / CTA

14. Footer

This order intentionally moves the visitor from:

Emotion → Football → Credibility → Story → Impact → Engagement.

61. PRIMARY CALL-TO-ACTION SYSTEM

The website should consistently guide users toward specific actions.

For supporters:

SUPPORT US

For sponsors:

PARTNER WITH US

For players:

JOIN TAKEOVER

For media:

MEDIA CENTRE

For community organisations:

WORK WITH US

For football fans:

FOLLOW THE CLUB

Do not put ten competing buttons on every page.

62. FUTURE E-COMMERCE

The website should be designed so an online store can be added later.

Potential products:

- Official jerseys
- Training kits
- Caps
- Scarves

- T-shirts
- Bags
- Other club merchandise

The store should eventually have its own section:

SHOP TAKEOVER

63. FUTURE DIGITAL MEMBERSHIP

Potential future programme:

TAKEOVER FAMILY

Members could receive:

- Club updates
- Digital membership card
- Exclusive content
- Matchday benefits
- Merchandise offers
- Community events
- Supporter recognition

This is not necessarily a launch requirement but the architecture should allow it.

64. TRUST & CREDIBILITY

The website should include evidence.

Examples:

- Club history
- Registered organisational information where appropriate
- Leadership
- Partnerships
- School collaborations
- Community work
- Player stories
- Match records
- Photographs

- Reports
- Official announcements

The principle is:

Show, don't simply tell.

65. SECURITY

The website should follow professional security practices.

Minimum requirements:

- HTTPS
- Secure authentication
- Admin MFA where possible
- Role-based access
- Regular backups
- Firewall/WAF
- Spam protection
- Secure forms
- Input validation
- Rate limiting
- Security monitoring
- Regular updates
- Privacy controls

The admin system should not give every team member full access.

66. ANALYTICS

Install analytics from launch.

Track:

- Visitors
- Traffic sources
- Most visited pages
- Player profile views
- Match page views
- News engagement
- Partnership enquiries

- Support enquiries
- Registration submissions
- Downloads
- Social referrals
- Geographic traffic

The club should eventually know:

Who is visiting us, why they are visiting, and what they do after arriving.

67. KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Website success should not only be measured by visitor numbers.

Track:

Awareness

Website visitors

Search impressions

Social referrals

Engagement

Pages per session

Time on site

Player profile views

News engagement

Football

Fixture views

Match centre views

Player registrations

Community

Programme enquiries

68. LAUNCH PHASES

Launch with:

- Partners
- Support
- Media
- Contact

69. THE WEBSITE SHOULD FEEL LIKE A CLUB, NOT A PROJECT

This is extremely important.

The website should not constantly communicate:

"We are a small team trying to become bigger."

Instead:

"We are a young club building something lasting."

There is a major difference.

The website should respect where Takeover FC currently is while confidently communicating where it is going.

70. FINAL CREATIVE DIRECTION

If the design team needs one sentence to guide the entire project, give them this:

Build Takeover FC's website as if you are documenting the rise of a future football institution — not advertising a local football team.

The website should combine:

The energy of football.

The discipline of a professional club.

The humanity of community development.

The confidence of a modern African brand.

The creativity of Takeover Creatives.

And above all:

FOOTBALL WITH PURPOSE.

71. FINAL WEBSITE SUCCESS TEST

Before launch, the team should ask five questions:

1. Can someone understand Takeover FC within 30 seconds?

If not, simplify.

2. Does the website look credible enough for an international organisation to consider partnering with the club?

If not, improve the presentation.

3. Does the website tell the story of the community?

If not, the site is incomplete.

4. Can the club operate the website without constantly calling developers?

If not, the CMS is inadequate.

5. Does the website look like it can grow with Takeover FC for the next 5-10 years?

If not, redesign the architecture.

72. FINAL POSITIONING

The website should establish Takeover Creatives FC as:

A FOOTBALL CLUB.

A YOUTH DEVELOPMENT PLATFORM.

A COMMUNITY.

A MOVEMENT.

A FUTURE INSTITUTION.

The ultimate digital journey should therefore be:

DISCOVER TAKEOVER

→ UNDERSTAND THE CLUB

→ MEET THE PLAYERS

→ FOLLOW THE FOOTBALL

→ SEE THE IMPACT

→ UNDERSTAND THE VISION

→ BECOME PART OF IT

That is the standard the website should be designed around.
